

Responder

Not every team member is automatically a formal Responder. Formal Responder roles are filled by trained team members listed on the current duty roster.

YOU REPORT TO / REPORTING STRUCTURE

Reports to the Operations Commander (OC) once formally deployed.

FIRST 0–3 MINUTES

- Protect yourself.
- Raise the alarm.
- Report what happened.
- Provide basic assistance only within your training.

NEXT 3–10 MINUTES

- Report to OC.
- Follow assigned sector/task.
- Evacuate/direct guests.
- Cordon unsafe areas.
- Assist rescue within training.
- Carry equipment.
- Conduct sweeps where safe.
- Report hazards.
- Maintain radio discipline.
- Report task completion.

LIFE-SAFETY EXCEPTION

Immediate life-saving movement from an area of imminent danger may be initiated without waiting for IC authorisation. In an immediate life-threatening emergency, if IC/OC cannot be reached, a trained responder may contact emergency services without delay and must notify IC as soon as practicable.

ONGOING RESPONSIBILITIES

- Stay within your assigned sector/task.
- Keep OC updated on progress and hazards.
- Maintain radio discipline throughout.

DO NOT

- Do not freelance.
- Do not enter unsafe areas without training/PPE.
- Do not leave assigned area without informing OC.
- Do not speak to media.
- Do not speculate to guests.

BEFORE ALL CLEAR / HANDOVER

- Complete and report on your assigned task.
- Return to OC for reassignment or stand-down.
- Report any remaining hazards.

FORMS / TOOLS TO GRAB

- Applicable scenario ICS Activation Checklist
- A34 Radio Code List

REMEMBER

Protect yourself first. Stay in your assigned task, stay on the radio, and let the IC/OC make the calls above your level.
